

Curriculum Vitae

Name*Donna Scovell*Position

Principal Investigator

Experience

Since joining Ashdale in 2006, Donna has conducted many administrative reviews and investigations for a variety of agencies. These have included the examination of allegations of serious misconduct, conflicts of interest, corrupt conduct, misuse of resources, nepotism and cronyism in recruitment, sexual harassment and workplace bullying. She has also conducted audits of workplace culture; initial complaint assessments in order to resolve issues wherever possible without formal investigations; and reviews of investigations completed by internal or other external investigation organisations.

Donna has a particular interest in workplace bullying matters.

She formerly worked in education as a teacher of mainstream, Indigenous and international students. From 1991 through to 2006, she held management roles in private training institutions which offered intensive English as a second language courses and various business training courses, similar to TAFE environments.

She has extensive experience in cross cultural work environments; and lived and worked overseas.
